

AMBAR

Ambar Arely Salas was 4-years old when her leg was crushed by a truck. Paper Houses paid for surgery and a prosthetic limb. As she has grown (she is now in the 5th grade) we have replaced the prosthesis. She remains a happy, laughing child and her school-work is perfect, as reflected by her marvelous report cards.

Ambar was 4 years old when we first visited her home.

